

2019 Gladstone Region Take pART: pop up public performance art, in conjunction with Gladstone Regional Council's annual EcoFest celebrations, 9am to 3pm, Sunday 2 June 2019 at Gladstone Tondoon Botanic Gardens.

ARTIST	Title	Partner
Rosemary Anderson	The Rescuer	John Anderson and Boyne Island State School's Green & Healthy Team
Leah and Ken Chynoweth-Tidy Kissing the Flint	Discovereco - Reducing Wastelines - Discovery Coast Sustainable Creatives	Madonna's Café 's Philip Frost and Madonna Lyell, costuming in recycled materials
Kristel Kelly	No Strings Attached	Johanna Houlahan
Melissa Peacock	Wing It	Rosella Park State School students (5)
Andreia Pereira	The Story of my Murder	Luke Wrathall
Beryl Wood	Science and Nature	Isabella Wood de Melo
Beryl Wood	Spreading the News	Mana Ridden
Margaret Worthington	Intrepid Bird Explorer	Ben Felix and Sue Daw

Supported by the Gladstone Regional Council Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF). A Queensland Government and Gladstone Regional Council partnership to support local arts and culture in regional Queensland.

